

Chris Hume

He has worked in the field for over 15 years. After having an apprenticeship with a 50-year farrier veteran, he started his own business in the Santa Ynez Valley. He has a huge clientele and we are so grateful he has found the time to help us out on a regular basis. His love and compassion for horses shines brightly through his gentle hands and soft voice.